

RACIAL JUSTICE ACT SYMPOSIUM

2024

The 2024 Racial Justice Act Symposium, a dynamic collaboration between the Berkeley Criminal Law & Justice Center and the Berkeley Journal of Criminal Law, brings together public defenders, data scientists, legal scholars, expert witnesses, activists, organizers, and the author of the California RJA, Assemblymember Ash Kalra, as keynote speaker. Don't miss the chance to help the RJA achieve its promise of eradicating racially biased convictions and sentences, and to shape a fairer, more equitable legal landscape for all.

KEYNOTE
SPEAKER

ASSEMBLYMEMBER ASH KALRA

FACILITATED BY: CHESA BOUDIN

1 RJA DATA TOOL DEMO

2 PRE-TRIAL LITIGATION

3 POST-CONVICTION

4 DATA SCIENCE

5 IMPACT LITIGATION

Landmark legislation passed in 2020 and expanded in 2022, California's Racial Justice Act explicitly prohibits racial bias and ethnic prejudice in cases in the criminal legal system

Meals provided

CLE credits offered

RSVP REQUIRED

2 FEB 2024 Friday, 8:30 AM - 8:00 PM
UC Berkeley Law School

For more info, email CLJC@berkeley.edu